we did not obtain enough data for the wash group and thus data from the wash group was excluded from our data analysis.

but it soon evolved into a public ranking system which was used to measure officials performance