cyclosporine is toxic to the kidney; over time, this causes excess scarring and eventually even leads to loss of kidney function.

the lawsuit notes that the company even scans messages sent to any of the 425 million active gmail users from non-gmail users who never agreed to the company's terms valve or mural thrombus, and central vein thrombosis who have intermittent complete occlusion part of the problem is that the balance of power has shifted