state-owned statnett to own and operate power interconnectors between Norway and the rest of Europe. Psychological

Further, many of the drugs used for wildlife, particularly field anesthesia, are controlled substances whose use is restricted by the Drug Enforcement Agency (DEA).

The employees of these companies may well think they're working for a legitimate company and consequently sound perfectly sincere and above board.