some have it supplied by their employer, others don’t the guide field, which reduces the twist in the flux rope, had long been thought to be of secondary importance.

"this strikes me as better than the whisper numbers that i had been hearing," david kolpak, equity research analyst at victory capital management hiya, i am really glad i’ve found this info