I've been to jail and through relationships

The FDA has stated that the GE status of a food is not a material fact, and that labeling a product as not containing GE ingredients misleads consumers by implying product superiority.

Do not use the Dexcom G5 mobile CGM system in critically ill patients.