the costs of the opioid treatment drugs varies from state to state and from one medicaid agency to another for that reason, our specific comments below recommend against the use of these terms and or suggest definitions.