of a state general fund only passes on the financial burden that smoking imposes to future generations

most often, ed is secondary (acquired later in life by a man who previously was able to attain erection)